

Beloved in communities across the US, Brendan Abernathy is “Everyone’s Local Artist.” Writing from the depths of heartbreak and through adventure on the road, Brendan is known for his spot-on lyrics, memorable melodies, and a captivating, high-energy live performance you will feel in your soul. Creating a fresh but familiar sound somewhere between Noah Kahan, Lewis Capaldi, James Taylor, and Dermot Kennedy, Brendan’s authentic words and powerful vocals and vibrato speak straight to the listener’s heart of hearts.

For four years, Brendan lived out of his car, and toured over 300 days per year. Now, he calls Los Angeles his musical home, but still spends most days of the year reaching fans new and old. After releasing four EP’s, Brendan is in the midst of releasing collaboration songs and will soon begin rolling out his debut full-length album.

2024 holds great promise for the young singer-songwriter, already seeing his songs playlisted on Spotify’s New Music Friday, Juniper, All New Indie, Fresh Folk, Fresh Finds Folk, and Folk & Friends, Tidal’s Ballad Heart, and Vevo’s Organic Alt & Rock, and likely holding his 500th live performance.
